GENERAL BACKGROUND INFORMATION

You must give complete answers to all questions. If you answer "yes" to any question, you must list all offenses, and for each conviction provide date of conviction and disposition, regardless of the date or location of the occurrence. Conviction of a criminal offense is not a bar to employment in all cases. Applicants who show a criminal record within the last five years are not eligible for employment. A record from six or more years ago is evaluated based on the severity of the crime.

Criminal Offense includes felonies, misdemeanors, summary offenses and convictions resulting from a plea of "nolo contendere" (no contest).

Conviction is an adjudication of guilt and includes determinations before a court, a district justice or a magistrate, which results in a fine, sentence, or probation.

You may omit: minor traffic violations, offenses committed before your 18th birthday which were adjudicated in juvenile court or under a Youth Offender Law, and any convictions which have been expunged by a court or for which you have successfully completed an Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (ARD) program.
