

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

NATHAN ORREZZ FLEMING

Class of 2007

After graduating from William Penn Senior High School, Mr. Fleming had plans to enlist in the military. When he became a father, he "decided that being an active parent was more important to me." He has since studied business and entrepreneurship at multiple institutions. He has been a barber and small business owner in York for nine years. Now 30, Mr. Fleming lives in York City.

WHAT DO YOU CONSIDER YOUR GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT SO FAR?

Owning and operating my business in York City among my peers. I live by the motto 'collaboration over competition!' We can move our city forward if we all work together. Small businesses like mine are the backbone of this country.

HOW DO YOU DEFINE SUCCESS?

Creating my own destiny by accomplishing my goals, challenging myself, and always staying focused on the bigger picture.

WHO WAS YOUR FAVORITE TEACHER, AND WHY?

Ms. Wu. She was hilarious. Really great energy, amazing sense of humor, and was down to earth.

WHAT'S ONE PIECE OF ADVICE YOU WOULD SHARE WITH TODAY'S STUDENTS?

You are creating your journey now! Everything you do now will either help you or hurt you in the future. Reality is what you make it! If you want to be a winner, you must first think like a winner.
